

Name _____ Date _____

Connecting with Conjunctions

The words below help us put two or more things together.

and            but            or

Examples:

1. I like to eat apples and oranges.
2. I like to eat apples but not oranges.
3. I can eat one apple or one orange.

Directions: Read each sentence. Choose the correct word, circle it, and write it on the line.

1. I need a pencil _____ a piece of paper to write.

and            or            but

2. We have a cat _____ we do not have a fish.

and            or            but

3. Tomorrow we can go to the zoo _____ the movies, but not to both.

and            or            but

4. I would like carrots, peas, _____ broccoli please.

and            or            but

5. When you go to the end you can go left _____ right.

and            or            but