

English

Hmong

Main Idea

3 ES 4.b 3 ES 4.d

The Moon orbits Earth. The Moon’s shape seems to change during its four-week lunar cycle.

Niam Tswvyim

3 ES 4.b 3 ES 4.d

Lub Hli khiav ncig lub Ntiajteb. Zoo li lub cev Hli keev hloov hauv txhua txhua plaub-limpiam puag ncig.

The changing shapes of the Moon are called phases. (p. 200–201)

Lub cev hloov ntawm lub Hli hu ua cov theem caij. (p. 200–201)

The Moon’s shape seems to change because we see different amounts of its lit side. (pp. 202–203)

Zoo li lub cev Hli keev hloov vim peb pom nws cov nplaim ci sib txawv sab. (pp. 202–203)

A lunar eclipse occurs when the Moon moves into Earth’s shadow. (p. 204)

Ib lub hli nraim tshwmsim thaum lub Hli khiav los ncaj rau tus duab ntxoov Ntiajteb. (p. 204)