

English

Hmong

Main Idea 4 LS 2.a
Plants use the Sun’s energy to make food energy through a process called photosynthesis.

Niam Tswvyim 4 LS 2.a
Nroj tsuag siv lub Hnub lub zog los tsim zog zaub mov raws ib txoj hlab ceg nplooj ceg kav hu ua photosynthesis.

Plants are important living things. Most plants have roots, stems, and leaves. (pp. 26–27)

Nroj tsuag yog cov tsavyam ciao siav tseemceeb heev. Ntau hom nroj tsuag muaj cag, kav, thiab nplooj. (pp. 26–27)

Green plants carry out photosynthesis to make food energy from sunlight, water, and carbon dioxide. (pp. 28–31)

Nroj tsuag ntsuab xa zog raws ceg nplooj ceg kav mus ua zog zaub mov ntawm sab hnub, dej, thiab carbon dioxide. (pp. 28–31)

Plants make up most of the biomass in an environment. (p. 32)

Cov nroj tsuag tsim feem ntau ntawm cov noob nroj tsuag hauv ib cheebtsam. (p. 32)